Property Description

This three bedroom home overlooking the city of San Isidro de El General offers elegant living in a near-perfect Costa Rica micro-climate.The property is located just out of town off the Pan American highway, going towards San Jose, in the area called San Rafael Norte. The elevation is a cool 1,100 meters (3,600 feet). And the views of the valley and the city lights of San Isidro de El General are spectacular, to put it mildly.The property is well-built concrete block construction. It features a large outdoor living area under the roof that leads to a spacious kitchen, elegant dining area, and entertainment room. Also located on the first floor are the two guest bedrooms, sharing a full-bath and then another half bath in the hallway.The upstairs is where the large master bedroom with its own balcony, featuring the best views of the property. There is also a large en-suite bathroom.Underneath the outdoor living area is a two-car garage and barbecue area with an old-fashioned brick oven.
