Property Description

This 1 acre property is tucked away in the jungle in the prestigious community of Lagunas, less than 10 min from Dominical and the beach. It has a very large building site which is perched up and offers a 360 degree view including the mountains and the ocean. The long driveway also guarantees privacy. It is on the Lagunas water system and has power touching the property. This lot has been segregated out of a 56 acre farm and most of the remaining acreage will be put into a nature reserve so nothing will ever be rebuilt below the property. This is a great property at a great price!!
