Property Description

Ideal Property for Grand Estate or Wellness Retreat with Spectacular Ocean and Mountain Views This 10-acre property is located close to the surfing paradise of Playa Dominical on top of a hilltop with magnificent views of the Pacific Ocean, year-round sunsets, and nearby mountains of the South Pacific Coast of Costa Rica. This is the perfect location for a mansion or family compound surrounded by beautiful flowering and fruit trees—their focal point being almost 360-degree views including 100 miles of coastline. This serene land would also provide an ideal site to build a boutique hotel, resort, or yoga retreat facility to cater to special groups like multi-generation families, surfers, destination weddings, corporate groups, spiritual retreats, as well as the general public seeking a place for seclusion. A thorough master plan has already been made for such an eco-retreat on this site, by a prestigious team including architects and top eco-retreat operators in Costa Rica.
