Property Description

Spectacular wide open horizon, sunset view property located in the up and coming D Section. Several multi-million dollar homes have been and are under construction in this neighborhood. This is an amazing opportunity to invest in a property that has a million dollar view for half the price. Access from the private easement from above and the public road below gives you the opportunity to subdivide the property upper and lower for future development purposes. For more information on this amazing opportunity please do not hesitate to contact Surfing Nosara at info@surfingnosara.com.
