Property Description

This lush and tropical property is located in a quiet community that gives you the gift of privacy, peace and amazing mountain and jungle views while still being close to town and all its amenities. The premium location is accessible without 4wd and is only a 5-minute drive down a paved road to the town center of Uvita or the beautiful beaches of Playa Hermosa and the Whale's Tail National Park. The Vista Ballena Boutique Hotel is within walking distance and has a restaurant and bar that makes for a great gathering spot to enjoy some cocktails or food while taking in the world's most beautiful sunsets from the luxurious pool deck. The views from this mountain range are truly spectacular and you will be sure to enjoy all the toucans and monkeys playing within your own backyard. The property features a large flat plot ready for you to build your future dream home. Enjoy the tasty treats grown straight from your very own cacao trees planted throughout the lush jungle property.
