Property Description

Angler's Estate is an amazing estate property located just a stone's throw away from Marina Pez Vela, and the world renowned Manuel Antonio National park. With an area well over half an acre, this expansive property offers privacy, security, and an unique combination of serenity and convenience.The Estate's housing consists of a total of three constructions, with an abundance of available land brimming with opportunity for future developments. The main home is a vast 3 bedroom, 3.5 bathroom, luxury rental property perched on the property's summit. As one enters the fully gated compound and drives upward to the carport near the central house's main entry, the panoramic views of the Fila Chonta Mountain range serve as a warm greeting. The main floor boasts a beautiful open floor plan that complements the enveloping vistas of Costa Rican rainforest with exotic hardwoods. It hosts the kitchen, living and dining area, a guest bedroom with full en suite bathroom, an office space, and a half bathroom for guests.
