Property Description

Twin houses for sale in Guadalupe. This type of property is versatile and can work well for families who also want to have a home business or for small entrepreneurs looking for a convenient location for their company. Each house has an open space that combines the living room, dining room and kitchen in a single fluid environment. The kitchen has a breakfast bar, wooden furniture, and a pantry. Two secondary bedrooms with a large closet, laminate floors, sharing a full bathroom, with wooden furniture and granite countertops. Master bedroom with laminate flooring, wooden toilet, private bathroom, double hand washing and double shower with tempered glass. Internal gardens, back garden, laundry area. Each house has parking for two vehicles. Located near shopping and educational centers in the area. Both houses offer features that adapt to different tastes and needs, but both prioritize comfort and functionality.
