Property Description

Perched almost at the top of the hill, this property offers an unforgettable panorama stretching across the volcanic mountain range and the Central Valley of Costa Rica. The main house has four bedrooms, with the master suite located upstairs. On the ground floor, a spacious terrace runs the entire length of the house, providing the perfect spot to enjoy the spectacular views. Adjacent to the main house, a large two-story building awaits your creative ideas. It offers incredible potential for additional living space, a guesthouse, or any project you envision. Investor Opportunity: The owner also has five undeveloped lots on the highest part of the hill. They can be proposed for sale to the buyer of this property, offering a fantastic opportunity for future development or investment. This unique property combines natural beauty, privacy, and exciting possibilities, making it an extraordinary find in the Atenas area!
