Property Description

This beautiful property is located in a small community less than 10 minutes from Atenas. It offers breathtaking views, a peaceful setting, and excellent building potential. Water and electricity are available, and two stable level areas are ready for construction—ideal for a home, guesthouse, or pool. The land also features over 30 fruit trees planted three years ago, which are now beginning to produce. Atenas is famous for its exceptional climate and central location, providing quick access to the international airport and major cities in under 45 minutes. Grecia is just 20 minutes away. Build-ready lots with views like this are becoming scarce—don't miss out!
