Property Description

Tucked into 1.25 acres of tropical surroundings in the heart of Tierra Pacifica, Casa Cristalina is a thoughtfully designed 1,500 sq ft custom home that blends modern comfort with natural beauty. With a private lounge pool overlooking lush greenery and daily visits from howler monkeys, this is where Costa Rica's wild charm meets laid-back luxury. Set within Tierra Pacifica, an ecological gated community with 24/7 security, residents enjoy access to top-tier amenities: a fully equipped gym, tennis courts, and a striking three-tiered waterfall pool. Playa Junquillal, with its wide, walkable stretch of dark sand and the nearby VerdiAzul turtle sanctuary, lies just over 1.5 miles away. Interior Design & Layout - Casa Cristalina embraces open-concept living, with a large central island and stainless steel appliances anchoring the kitchen, which flows naturally into the dining and living areas.
