Property Description

If you're searching for a spacious, brand-new home just minutes from the beautiful beaches of Costa Rica's Gold Coast, while still being close to a variety of amenities and within a budget-friendly range, this property is an excellent choice. Its generous layout provides ample space and abundant natural light, offering great value for money. Constructed with sturdy concrete, the home features durable finishes that are well-suited to the area. As you approach this charming residence, you'll notice the convenient two-car covered carport. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a seamlessly integrated living and dining area that connects to a terrace overlooking the lush green spaces. The kitchen is designed to blend with the social areas and includes an island that offers ample workspace for preparing your favorite meals, along with a spacious laundry area located at the back. Upstairs, you'll discover two guest bedrooms sharing a full bathroom, along with the main bedroom that features an en-suite bathroom and a generous balcony.
